C. B. Vawter, representing a large machinery and supply house in Denver, left for his home yesterday.

John Foley, who has been at school in Berkeley, California, is back home to spend the holidays with relatives.

The Eagles will attend the minstrel in a body tonight, as it is understood that there are a number of Eagles with the show.

J. J. Huffaker has accepted the position as yard foreman of the Copper Queen mine, during the absence of John Corning.

A large number of men are at work doing assessment work near Bisbee for the different companies and some on their own property.

Eight county prisoners were sent up yesterday from Naco by Justice Greaves and will be put to work helping improve the roads near Bisbee.

The mine is short of large size timber and are using smaller pieces instead. A sufficient quantity is expected to arrive this week to keep the mine going for some time.

Judging from the number of cars of lumber being received every week in Bisbee the building of dwelling houses continues and the side hills are being graded clear to the top.

T. H. Tracey made a flying trip to Benson Wednesday and returned to consult with Merrill of the Calumet and Arizona Mining company about their new smelting plant.

John E. Rockwell and Richard Corey, representing the Allis-Chalmers company of Chicago and Denver, after spending a few days in Bisbee left for their respective homes yesterday.

A large number have signed the petition that has been circulated in Bisbee to have Congress re-enact the Gear, Act, and this petition will be sent to Delegate Mark Smith in a few days.

The United States Marshal's office was being moved from Tucson to Phoenix yesterday. A deputy will, of course, remain in Tucson, and it is said he will maintain an office there.

The brick wall of the Copper Queen warehouse, which fell in several weeks ago, has been rebuilt and is now being thoroughly braced and made secure to prevent a recurrence of the accident.

Judge C. E. Moorman, of Solomonville, arrived in Bisbee last evening and will remain on a visit for several days. Judge Moorman is one of the leading lawyers of Graham county where he has resided for the past twelve years.

The three large storage oil tanks near the Czar hotel are nearly full of oil, which will be used for fuel in place of coal under the mine boilers in the smelter. The oil burners are being installed and will be tried early next week.

B. F. Hall returned Monday from an extended stay in Oklahoma. Mr. Hall tried his luck in the land lottery but did not draw a prize, but went into business for himself and speaks well of the new country just opened up for settlement.

Every year at the beginning of the cold winter months a large number of men drift into Arizona mining camps to make their winter quarters. There are now in Bisbee something like one hundred idle men, waiting to get work of some kind.

E. A. Nichols, county superintendent of public schools, who has been in Bisbee ten days to visit the schools of this city, will return to his home in Wilcox this morning. While here, Mr. Nichols was also availing himself of the professional services of Dr. Sweet.

The Phoenix Gazette of the 18th says that suit has been filed in the district court of Maricopa county by attorney Frank Cox, of that city, against W. C. Greene and the Greene Consolidated Copper company, the plaintiff asking for a judgment of $4,500, which he claims is due for services rendered.

The Citizen says the Surveyor General's office in Tucson is working on the platting of the Bisbee town site. Judge C. R. Bostwick, representing the people of Bisbee has taken up the work of securing a patent for a town site. When a city is not incorporated instead of calling on the mayor or council this work is done by the probate judge of the county. He is authorized to take testimony and render decisions and decide as to permanence of title to property.

Three double handed teams have already entered the drilling contest at El Paso during carnival week next month, and more are expected to enter in a few days. Those who have already entered are Berg and Johnson, McGowan and Shea and Kelly and McDonald. The boys will begin practicing for the event and get in good shape for the contest. Mr. Berg was a contestant in a drilling contest at Prescott last year, and won the prize here in a contest last summer.

Well Conducted Company.

One of the most noticeable features about the picture play "Too Rich To Marry" is the printers art that has been brought into play on the bills and advertisements. The printing used to advertise the comedy is the finest that can be turned out of the large eastern printing houses. Show coming here shortly.

Hi Henry's Minstrels.

Hi Henry's minstrel troupe arrived yesterday on the regular train and gave their initial performance at the Opera House to a crowded house. Mr. Henry has gathered together an army of artists and their reception here last night must have been extremely gratifying to all connected with the show, as the audience by frequent storms of applause attested the appreciation of meritorious work.

A matinee will be given this afternoon and another performance tonight. No better show has ever been in Bisbee.

Choate Lucky, As Usual.

What might have been a very serious accident last Monday evening resulted quite fortunately to those most interested. As W. G. Choate, the superintendent of the Bisbee road and Engineer Out were returning from a trip to the country their team became unmanageable and ran away. Both gentlemen were thrown out, and Mr. Choate received a very severe sprain of his ankle. Mr. Out got off more lucky with only a few scratches.—El Paso News.

The Copper Queen Store.

The Jewelry Department is not as well known as it should be. In the southwest corner of the second floor it is somewhat off the highway of the usual store traffic—up the stairs and to the counter you usually buy at. Holiday time will be a good time to become better acquainted with it. Many customers, walking around aimlessly with a despairing, wonder-what-to-buy-look, have stopped at the Jewelry counter and before leaving they found something. After the Holidays, it will be well to remember too that more and better kinds of all sorts of jewelry are here than you'd find if you should travel several days. A hint—with some prices:

SPOONS, paper cutters, glove buttons, brooches—all set in mosaics. Very new, extremely novel and quite inexpensive. The glove buttons start at 50 cents and then the prices for the different articles run up to $5.00 for a brooch of sterling silver.

MEN'S WATCH CHAINS, $1.50 to $10.00.

OXIDIZED METAL FOBS, $1.00 to $2.00.

FOBS of black grosgrain ribbon with buckle or slide of gold,

$3.00 to $7.00. Some have Elk charms

THIMBLES, gold $2.00; silver, with gold band $1.50; silver 50 cents

BROOCHES, $5.00 to $25.00.

RINGS, plain bands or set with stones—for men, women or children.

SOLITAIRE DIAMOND RINGS, up to $125.00.

WATCHES, up to $65.00.

WICKENS CHAINS—bar and charm in center, $5.50 to $10.50.

Silver plated ware in sets or single pieces. If you've set your limit at $2.00 or $15.00 you can find something to suit, and it will be a present worth while.

SHOES and SLIPPERS

For women—warmly lined comfortable, pretty slippers, Colonial and Juliet styles, $2.00.

SHOES for dress, dainty and trim, or the kind made on a mannish last, with extension soles. $3.50 is a between price, there being better and cheaper sorts.

For Men: Slippers for $1.50 and $2.00. Pay $5.00 if you wish the best in shoes. That price and up to $6.50 and you can pick from such makes as Hanan.

Sterling Silver and Ebony Goods.

Such a variety that description is almost out of the question.

All sorts of brushes and manicure pieces, and useful articles for the desk. A dollar is about the average price, and three dollars the outside limit.

Of these goods there are two cases in the Dry Goods Department from which to pick from.

Indian Rugs.

Just in time to help some out of the what-to-give dilemma.

Navajo Rugs made of Germantown yarn and as gorgeous in colors as one could wish. $8.00 to $15.00.

Navajo Looms for Indian Corners and Dens, $1.25. These go through the mail nicely and at little expense.

Lace Handkerchiefs.

Bits of fine lace and sheer linen combined. Result—dainty creations, called handkerchiefs, though so different and superior to the usual handkerchiefs.

The lace trimmed handkerchiefs begin at 35c, but the prettiest ones cost 55c, $1.00 and $1.25.

Sheer linen hemstitched and prettily embroidered, then an edge of lace. Can you imagine anything more dainty.

Embroidered on swiss and linen, some with rows of narrow tucks, some with scalloped edges, others with hemstitched edge 25c to $1.00. Some extremely pretty linen embroidered handkerchiefs are 85c each.

Cigars.

Well known brands put up especially for Christmas trade. Such brands as La Internacional, 25 in a little fancier box than usual, $2.50. Same brand, 50 in box, $4.50.

La Dos Naciones, 25 in a box, $3.25.

General Arthur, 12 in a box, $1.00.

You couldn't please some men more than by giving a box of either of these good cigars.

Smokers' Articles.

If he smokes you can easily find something among the pipes and kindred things that will surely please him.

Meerschaum pipes, $2.00 to $17.50.

Brier pipes, 50 cents to $6.00, the better ones with sterling silver and solid gold trimmings.

Cigar holders, from 75 cents for the amber to $3.50 for the meerschaum.

Then there are Mexican carved leather cigar cases for both cigars and cigarettes, tobacco pouches, match boxes—all aids to the smoker's comfort.

CANDY—Pure and Fresh

No matter how loaded up you are with packages, you are not through with the Holiday shopping unless you've paid a visit to the Candy Counter. One thing, the buying of the candy can be put off until the last, for there's no worry about quality or kinds. GUNTHER'S—that means the purest and best. Just say "Assorted" and you'll get some each

Caramels, chocolates, cocoas, burnt almonds, vanilla nougats, chocolate almonds, chocolate peppermint and winter green creams, chocolate pineapple creams, chocolate marshmallows, crystallized lemon, violet, orange, strawberry and pistachio bonbons—and other kinds of sweet concoctions.

Fancy baskets and boxes tied with ribbons and decorated with sprigs of holly—filled with candy—from $1.00 to $2.25 a box. If you want these fancy boxes, you'd better hurry for they'll soon be gone. Plenty of the plain one pound boxes, 65c and 75c a box. Candied fruits, assorted, in half and one pound boxes, 40c and 80c a box.

Perfumes

In giving perfume, give the best.

Rogers & Gallett, $3.00 for a box of three bottles.

Colgate—a wide range of extracts in various sized bottles. Some for as little as 50 cents.

You can't buy better perfume than either of the two mentioned.

CHILDREN'S SETS

Little knife, fork and spoon in a box. Silver plated $5.00 a set. Some at $2.50 have knife with pearl handle.

High Grade Stationery.

Made by HURD. The newest shapes and shades. Some boxes have two sizes of paper and two shades—ivory and azure. The beauty of the box enhances the value of the gift.

$1, $1.50, $2 and $2.25.

Other papetries—some for as little as 35c.
